

October 7

Deliver Us From Evil – Restoring the Soul in a Disintegrating Culture Confidence by Frank Peretti (261.2 ZAC) “Evil has taken on forms that shock the world.” With clarity and insight, Ravi Zacharias shows how many of today’s most popular ideas seemingly innocent thoughts and beliefs, are vandalizing our culture. With inspiring persuasion and unshakable certainty, he shows why “neutrality on these issues is impossible” and why “Even the so-called nonsecular and religiously dominated cultures of the world had better pay due heed to the truths” he uncovers. Here you will find the common ground of what threatens us all. And from that common ground the answers will become clear and inescapable. Exposing the fraudulent innocence and insidious power of evil belief systems, Ravi Zacharias pointedly asks, “What is it we live for, and what, in the pursuit, are we doing to our own children? One look at the world we are giving to them spells horror.” It will not do to just condemn the evil. In apprehension and fear we examine our options and make a change.

October 14

Can Man Live Without God by Ravi Zacharias (261.2 ZAC). “Apart from God, chaos is the norm: with God, the hungers of the mind and heart find their fulfillment.” In this brilliant and compelling defense of the Christian faith, Ravi Zacharias shows how affirming the reality of God’s existence matters urgently in our every day lives. According to Zacharias, who has debated the issue in such settings as Harvard and Princeton Universities, how you answer the question of God’s existence will impact your relationship with others, your commitment to integrity, your attitude toward morality and your perception of truth. And it can mean the difference between living a life filled with hope or despair.

October 21

A Father’s Gift – Lessons from Proverbs by Kenneth B. Wingate (248.842 WIN). Many young parents today are beside themselves with anxieties about their children, and, sadly, confusion too about how to nurture them. The ongoing addiction of our times to the heresy of modernity and its proud rejection – and ignorance – of the tested and tried wisdom of the past, inevitably leads to dysfunction in home and family life. Sadly, the older, wiser counsel of God’s Word, and especially of the book of Proverbs, is unknown or neglected. Yet Proverbs was composed specifically as a manual for home and family instruction, and to prepare us for life in the world. It is a divinely given handbook to help parents. Here then is a book for parents to read on their own; for teenagers to read on their own; for parents and teenagers, who are willing to take the family challenge, to read round the table after dinner or on other occasions. It points us to God’s way. It promises us God’s grace. What could be better for us than that?

October 28

Overcoming the World – Grace to Win the Daily Battle by Joel R. Beeke (248.4 BEE). “A book on worldliness seems strangely out of fashion today. Talk of holiness and separation from the world seems to belong to another age. Joel Beeke provides a dose of purity and sense, like a glass of clean fresh water, in the murky pools of today’s talk about holiness. The book is not only timely; it is also essential reading for every Christian who is serious about following Christ.”