

April 5

My Master and I – Stories Children Love #9 by W. G. Van de Hulst (YOUTH FIC VAN SCL-9). The Story: My name is Fik. I'm a strong dog. But I'm not very smart. Just listen to my story. My master, John, and I like to spend our time together. Sometimes we do get into trouble through. When there is danger I warn my master. But then my master gets so sick and I cannot help. All I can do is be sad and hope my master will get better.

April 12

Marvels of Creation – Magnificent Mammals by Buddy & Kay Davis (EDU DAV MOC). Did you know? A camel can go without water 10 times longer than a human. A cheetah can run up to 70 miles an hour. 25,000 sharp-pointed quills cover the porcupine. It's two feet long and weighs 132 pounds – the heart of a giraffe. What an incredible design these animals have! The Master Creator made such wonderful and beautiful animals for our enjoyment! Children and adults both will delight in this illustrated guide to animals of the world. Filled with spectacular photographs and "creature classifications" – it is great for any home library. And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good (Genesis 1:25).

April 19

Reformation Heroes by Diana Kleyn with Joel R. Beeke (270.6 KLE). The Reformation did not happen instantaneously; it was something God patiently arranged over a number of years. As you read this book, you will learn how the Lord used some people to plant the seeds of church reform long before October 31, 1517, when Martin Luther published his ninety-five theses. Luther's story is well-known; we trust you will find it interesting and instructive to read about him and about forty others who contributed to the Reformation – some well known and others not so – most of whom are Reformation heroes. To provide a more full picture of the many-sided Reformation, chapters are also included on the Anabaptist and Counter Reformation movements. The book concludes with a brief summary of the influence of the Reformation in different areas of life.

April 26

The Pig Under the Pew – Stories Children Love #10 by W. G. Van de Hulst (Youth FIC VAN SCL-10). The Story: The preacher looked up from his books. The church door burst open and out tumbled three little boys and a girl – his daughter. Over them jumped a little pig. Right behind them, waving his fist angrily, was the church's caretaker. What brings all these together: three little rascals, the preacher's little girl, a curious little pig and an angry caretaker?