

April 4

2021

Born Again by Charles W. Colson (BIO COL). In 1974 Charles W. Colson pleaded guilty to Watergate-related offenses and, after a tumultuous investigation, served seven months in prison. In his search for meaning and purpose in the face of the Watergate scandal, Colson penned "Born Again." This unforgettable memoir shows a man who, seeking fulfillment in success and power, found it, paradoxically, in national disgrace and prison. In the decades since its initial publication, "Born Again" has brought hope and encouragement to millions. This remarkable story of new life continues to influence lives around the world through a dozen foreign editions.

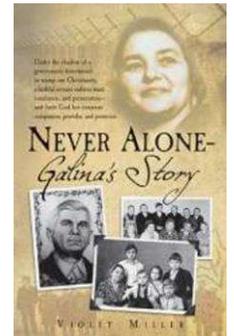

April 11

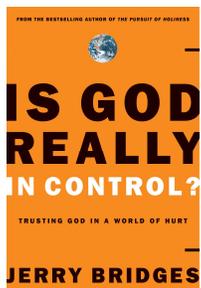

God, Greed, and the (Prosperity) Gospel – How Truth Overwhelms a Life Built on Lies by Costi W. Hinn (BIO HIN). Millions desperate for hope and solutions are enticed by the promise of the prosperity gospel -- that God will do whatever they need with just a little faith and a financial gift. All the while, prosperity preachers exploit the poor and needy to stockpile their riches. What can followers of the true gospel do to combat the deception? Through a remarkable and fascinating journey, Costi Hinn went from a next-generation prosperity preacher to the first to abandon the family faith and share the true gospel. Nephew of the world-famous televangelist, Benny Hinn, Costi had a front-row seat to the inner workings and theology of the prosperity gospel. But as Costi's faith deepened, so did his questions about prosperity teaching. As the deceptions in his past were exposed, Costi came face to face with the hypocrisy and devastation caused by his belief system, and the overwhelming truth about the real Jesus Christ.

April 18

Never Alone – Galina's Story by Violet Miller (BIO MIL). Galina's father was arrested when she was too small to remember. But her mother told her how she had waited by the tracks to meet him. When the train arrived, he was not on board. Galina grew up watching her godly mother's life of faith and seeing how God cared and provided for their family. When Galina's husband Pavel was ordained, she remembered her father's imprisonment and her mother's hardships. She knew she and Pavel might well face the same trials. "I am Yours, Lord," she prayed. "I am willing to do whatever You call us to, and even to suffer for Your name's sake." One day Galina had a visitor. "My dear sister, I have sad news for you." Their worst fears had come true. Pavel had been arrested. Galina learned the ache of loneliness and wept for what her husband was enduring. She struggled to raise their family for God. She saw her children come home from school in tears. She faced terrifying attempts by authorities to incarcerate her and take her children. Never Alone is much more than a chronicle of persecution. It is a story of complete commitment, the power of prayer, and the blessings of brotherhood. It is a testimony of God's protection, a challenge for today's Christians, and a reminder that, regardless of our circumstances, God's children are never alone.

April 25

Is God Really in Control? – Trusting God in a World of Hurt by Jerry Bridges (248.86 BRI). From devastating natural disasters to deadly highway accidents, tragedies occur every day around the world and in our own lives. As we face death, grief, loss, we become angry and our faith is tested as we ask, "Is God really in control?" Navigator author Jerry Bridges helps answer that question positively in this topical Bible study, offering comfort and hope by exploring the greater purposes and character of God.

- Includes discussion questions
- Can be used by men, women, and teens.